

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sensei President Joins Editorial Board of ALI-ABA's The Practical Litigator

Sharon D. Nelson, Esq. Will Use Her Expertise in Electronic Evidence To Help The Magazine Find the Most Cutting Edge Topics and Authors

December 23, 2008 (Fairfax, Virginia) – Sharon D. Nelson, Esq., President of Sensei Enterprises, Inc., a computer forensics and information technology firm headquartered in Fairfax, Virginia, has accepted an invitation to serve as a member of the editorial board of The Practical Litigator, a magazine published by the American Law Institute and the American Bar Association.

During her three-year term as a member of the editorial board, Ms. Nelson will work with other board members to determine what issues need to be addressed by the magazine. She will also review submitted articles in the electronic evidence field to judge the correctness of the author's analysis and legal discussion, and help guide the decision to accept or reject a manuscript for publication.

"I look forward to working with my colleagues to help lawyers stay abreast of developments in the electronic evidence arena," Ms. Nelson said when asked about her new position. "With both the law and the state of the art in the field evolving so quickly, it will be a challenging opportunity."

In a letter acknowledging her acceptance of the board membership, Mark T. Carroll, Director of the ABA's Office of Electronic and Print Publications, said that he thanked her for her willingness to serve, and looked forward to working with her on the board in the years to come.
