Sensei Enterprises Becomes Microsoft Gold Certified Partner

June 8, 2010 (Fairfax, Virginia) – Sensei Enterprises, Inc. announced today that it has attained Microsoft Gold Certified Partner status recognizing Sensei’s expertise with Microsoft technologies and proven ability to meet customers’ needs.

Microsoft Gold Certified Partners receive benefits that can be passed through to clients in a way that helps their businesses grow. Partners are also provided with an advanced level of training and support. As one of the requirements for attaining Microsoft Gold Certified Partner status, Sensei clients were polled and asked to provide references. The survey respondents were anonymous and all gave Sensei very high marks, much higher than the Partner average.

Sensei’s Director of Information Technology, Jeff Fox, noted: “We are extremely pleased to have attained Gold Certified Partner status in the Microsoft Partner Program. This allows us to promote our expertise and relationship with Microsoft to our customers. The benefits provided through our Gold Certified Partner status will allow us to continue to enhance the offerings that we provide for customers.”
